

I found your website and was hoping maybe some of your members would be interested in the purchase of some dept 56 items that I have. These belonged to my companion of 28 yrs that died in 2009. She had a huge collection that my daughters took what they wanted and I still have these items left. I know she spent a lot of money on them. I have no idea what they are worth, but will accept offers plus postage. I have the list attached to this email. I hate to just take them to goodwill as a lot of the money to buy them came from me and good will just doesnt seem like a fair ending for them. I can be contacted at : coolram60@yahoo.com

All the items listed are in their original boxes and packaging, she was real anal about that. Thank You for your consideration and assistance.
