

Just so you know! March 17, 2017

. . . I just re-read the ‘Rehab display contest’ info. It’s a new competition being promoted for the NCC Silver Rush 25th Anniversary Gathering. This is the first time I’ve seen a display contest based on altering a Dept. 56 piece. Silver is the magic color for the changes. I’m wondering if you have to attend the gathering to submit an entry? If we have time, Linda and I are pretty good at changing things. Just saying <http://ncc56.com/NCC25/Gathering.shtml> for info.

. . . Tylenol advertises a ‘child proof cap’ – it’s also ‘David’ proof! I had a headache, good thing it wasn’t Linda proof.

. . . “Angels exist but sometimes they don’t have wings, they are called friends.” Saw the words on Facebook.

. . . People were talking about St. Patrick’s Day. It was suggested that we share our vignette celebrating the Irish. To make it more personal, we added the rocks Linda brought back from a family wedding in Ireland.

. . . Dept. 56 Village Express Van in ruby red attracts attention. Much more than most of the other colors available. At least in my humble opinion.

. . . She stood in the window and waved at the passing cars. Gerry said being in a store window she felt like a mannequin and that’s what she was supposed to do. Yes, I know another word for mannequin. We were at our Village North meeting VIPizza in Superior.
